Collection Summary

Title: Tommy Newsom Arrangements

Span Dates: 1947-1999

Call No.: ML31.N49

Creator: Newsom, Tommy

Extent: approximately 400 items ; 57 containers ; 15 linear feet

Language: Collection material in English

Repository: Music Division, Library of Congress, Washington, D.C.

Abstract: Tommy Newsom (1929-2007) was a saxophonist, arranger, bandleader, and composer. The collection contains musical arrangements that he wrote for dance band, symphonic orchestra, and small ensemble. The arrangements include manuscripts, printed copies, and photocopies for both full scores and orchestral parts. Most of the music dates from his thirty-year stint with the Tonight Show band. A few of the arrangements are by other arrangers and are identified as such.

Biographical Note

Thomas P. "Tommy" Newsom was born in Portsmouth, Va., on February 25, 1929. He began playing the saxophone as a young boy and by the time he was thirteen was playing with older musicians at the Elk's Club and similar venues. Newsom attended the Norfolk Division of the College of William & Mary and earned his bachelor's degree in music education from the Peabody Conservatory in Baltimore. During his enlistment from 1953 to 1956, Newsom was a member of Airmen of Note, an Air Force dance band with whom he toured throughout Europe and North Africa. Afterwards he earned a master's degree from Columbia University Teachers College. He also worked as a studio musician in New York throughout the 1950s.

His break came when Benny Goodman hired him to tour with his band. Newsom toured Latin America in 1961 and the former Soviet Union in 1962 and recorded with Goodman's big band in 1962, 1964, and 1967. He also recorded with Count Basie, the Ruby Braff and Marshall Brown swing sextet, and others. After playing in the band on The Merv Griffin Show, Newsom joined the Tonight Show band, in April 1962. He became assistant music director in 1968 and stayed with the show for thirty years. Newsom often substituted for regular Tonight Show bandleader Doc Severinsen who was known for his flashy clothes and flamboyant personality. Tonight Show host Johnny Carson took delight in poking fun at Newsom's conservative suits and somber demeanor calling him "Mr. Excitement." Newsom and Carson retired on the same day, May 22, 1992.

Newsom published hundreds of arrangements and compositions which have been performed by such artists as Skitch Henderson, Woody Herman, Beverly Sills, Kenny Rogers, Doc Severinsen, Billy Butterfield, Benny Goodman, Boots Randolph, and Charlie Byrd. He won numerous awards, including Emmy Awards for musical direction and a Clio award for an American Airlines radio commercial. He and his wife Patricia were married for fifty years. They have a daughter Candy. Newsom died April 28, 2007, in Portsmouth, Va.

Scope and Content Note

Tommy Newsom Arrangements contain dance band, symphonic orchestra, and small ensemble musical arrangements for 267 works. These include manuscripts, printed copies, and photocopies for both full scores and orchestral parts. While the collection spans Newsom's fifty-year career, from 1947 dance band arrangements to pieces for trumpeter Doc Severinsen's recordings in 1999, most of the music dates from his thirty-year stint on the Tonight Show. Many of the selections were arranged for featured performers, such as vocalists Vic Damone, Crystal Gayle, Patti Page, Paul Anka, Joe Williams, Glen Campbell, and Diahann Carroll; trumpeter Doc Severinsen; drummers Buddy Rich, Louis Bellson, and Duffy Jackson; trombonist Urbie Green; saxophonist Boots Randolph; and Newsom on tenor sax. A few arrangements in the collection are not by Newsom and are credited accordingly.
